Teams continue to Improve and Impress

The crystal ball has dropped closing out 2014 and the panthers picked right up in 2015 we they left off. The teams both improved and impressed over the weekend as we traveled to Northwestern for our first matches of 2015. The Blue and White teams both wrestled hard as the blue team continued its winning streak with a dominating performance over the hosting Tigers. The white team also continued to make strides and lost another nail bitter to tigers in a hard fought match that could have went either way. The white team will look to get back on the winning side of things this weekend as they travel to Pius X High School to take on East Side and Souderton
